

LUZIE M. POWELL read a brief address, which was of course compels us to postpone.

WILLIAM LIOTO GARLISON delivered a very able and impressive address, which was listened to with very deep interest. In accordance with his request we refrain from reporting it.

PARKER PILLSBURY made the concluding speech, which was very instructive, and in some parts exceedingly eloquent. We expect to publish it hereafter.

The Convention adjourned sine die.

THE SERMON OF MR. FROTHINGHAM, entitled "Seed and Sheaf," which was a most eloquent and valuable discourse, has been published by the Boston Herald.

"RESPECTABLE LADIES." Having been honored with your invitation to attend a pleasant meeting on the evening of the 22d, at which I cannot be present, I am moved to send you a few words from a heart thankful to you and noble band of women, who have so zealously and so unselfishly labored for a doleful race for many years, as to have drawn upon themselves respect from the whole world.

"As I read over your names in the newspaper, and found there thirty-four, I wondered if you had designed it not so many as representing the thirty-four States, once a Union according to the Constitution. I see by the names on your invitation, you have added one more; so I suppose you were willing each to be a representative of a State.

"Probably no one desired to personate South Carolina,

At home, or Mississippi.

To Mr. JOSHUA E. SMITH and his corps of experienced men, who took the entire charge of the tables, spread with the free donations of the friends of the Cause, and who gave us their time and indispensable services without charge, out of their regard for the great Cause which we are all laboring to serve, we feel that special thanks are due, and we beg them to believe that their labor of love is highly appreciated by us.

To Mr. LEVI WHITCOMB, who for many years has rendered us valuable and gratuitous services, as door-keeper, we unite to offer our sincere thanks.

And to the friends of Emancipation and of Freedom,

LATEST NEWS IN BRIEF

The traitor Brig. of Indiana, has been expelled from the Senate. Gen. Stone, the military slave-catcher, at Ball's Bluff treason, is in Fort Lafayette upon a charge of treason.

Gen. Wm. H. Washington Correspondent of Benson's Herald, and reputed writer of the editorial articles that have lately appeared in that paper calling on the government to stop the anti-slavery journals and to Harrison, Phillips, Sumner, Greeley, etc., to Fort Lafayette, has been sent by the Secretary of War to Fort Monroe, where he is confined upon the charge of using a traitor and a spy.

The Purseid Expedition has begun its work in the captures, after a hard fight, of Roanoke Island. The details of the battle are not yet fully received, but it is known that 2,500 rebel prisoners have been taken. Gov. Wm. W. Wm. will therefore not in the battle, but his vessel was wounded and captured. Elizabeth City was captured by the rebels.

Mr. Sumner has introduced in the Senate an important series of Resolutions, declaratory of the relations of the United States to the slave trade.

So the Trustees of the Society very cordially invited Mr. Garrison to supply the desk. The congregation, at the close of the morning service, voted a unanimous concurrence, and at that short notice the house was filled.

and for more than two hours, and if he had gone on for two hours more, not a dozen persons would have gone out of the Hall. It is of no use to attempt either to deny, or to explain, or to excuse the conduct of the audience. Some of the passages were exceedingly severe, but none so severe for the cause of truth and justice. In commenting upon the feast given by King Herod, he remarked upon the abominable inconsistency of certain people who will squander thousands upon the cause of truth, and yet will not give a penny for the living needy man. This was thought by some to be a hard hit upon certain people who live in a large house at the other end of the Avenue. Perhaps it was not. It is reported here that the idea of a dancing-school for the President's man, was suggested by the friends of the most popular man in the Government, Gen. Seward. This report may also be false. I set it down only as a report.
